

What's New

JGS Toronto is very pleased to be able to offer our members two new exclusive benefits:

Discounted Admission to the ROM's Exhibition Auschwitz. Not Long Ago. Not Far Away.

Marking the 80th anniversary of the camp's liberation, the Royal Ontario Museum (ROM) is hosting the internationally acclaimed exhibition Auschwitz. Not long ago. Not far away., on now until 1 September 2025.

ROM is offering members of JGS Toronto a discount on general admission to the museum and the Auschwitz exhibition.

For more information about the exhibition, visit rom.on.ca/whats-on/exhibitions/auschwitz-not-long-ago-not-far-away

Discounted Membership in the Ontario Genealogical Society

The Ontario Genealogical Society/Ontario Ancestors is Canada's largest member-supported genealogical organization. The society encourages, brings together, and assists those interested in the pursuit of family history and preserves Ontario's genealogical heritage.

Throughout 2025, OGS is offering members of JGS Toronto a discount on their OGS membership.

For more information about OGS, visit their website at ogs.on.ca

Promotion codes are required to purchase ROM tickets at the discounted rate or to obtain the discounted OGS membership rate. To obtain the applicable promotion codes, log in to the member area of our website at jgstoronto.ca/jgst-members
